

Cape & Islands Adventure

Rich with coastal New England charm, the Cape and Islands are at their most beautiful during our summer and autumn visits. You'll cycle the car-free Cape Cod Rail Trail through coastal villages alongside cranberry bogs, lush marshlands and rolling sand dunes. With visits to Nantucket and Martha's Vineyard, you'll discover why so many people are drawn to these enchanting islands. All this and you'll still have free time to relax and explore. If you're looking for an unforgettable New England cycling vacation, then look no further!

Cape & Islands Adventure Itinerary

Day 1: Bike Provincetown to Chatham – 17, 39, or 58 miles

We'll meet in Provincetown on the very tip of the Cape where your guides will get you oriented and fitted to your rental bike. After leaving Provincetown, you'll pedal along rolling country roads to Wellfleet, a thriving artist community full of art galleries and unique shops. Here begins the Cape Cod Rail Trail, a blissfully car-free bike trail that will take you all the way Chatham, where you'll stay for the first two nights of the trip. Tonight you'll dine at the Impudent Oyster in downtown Chatham. Meals included: L & D

Day 2: Ferry to Nantucket, Optional Biking 20 miles

After breakfast you'll make the 80-minute ferry crossing to the former whaling port of Nantucket. You can learn about the island's history at the whaling museum as a docent explains the whaling past and Quaker roots of Nantucket. If you'd rather, take a bike ride to Siasconset at the easternmost part of the island, or you can stay in town and visit more historical sights along the cobblestoned streets of the town center. At the end of the day you'll ferry back to the Cape and shuttle to Chatham, where you'll be free to enjoy dinner at the restaurant of your choice. Meals included: B

Day 3: Ferry to Martha's Vineyard, Bike to Aquinnah – 21 or 43 miles

This morning you bid farewell to Chatham and board another ferry to take you to Martha's Vineyard. You'll have the chance to explore the Vineyard's small port town on foot before getting back on your bike to pedal your way "up island" to the painted cliffs and the over 200 year old lighthouse at Aquinnah. Once you've had your fill of the breathtaking coastline at this westernmost point of the island, we'll shuttle you to Edgartown and our hotel for the night. Or if you are looking for more cycling, you may hop back on your bike for the return journey. Tonight we'll celebrate our last night together with a delicious meal at one of Edgartown's finest restaurants. Meals included: B, L & D

Day 4: Bike Katama & State Beaches – 15 miles

We'll begin the day with a ride on some of Martha's Vineyard's dedicated bike paths to visit the island's best beach—South "Katama" Beach. We'll also cycle along State Beach, crossing "Jaws" bridge, aptly named for its appearance in all three Jaws movies. After our ride, you'll have time to enjoy a leisurely breakfast and relax before hopping back on the ferry to the mainland. From there we'll shuttle you back to Boston where we'll say goodbye until next time... Meals included: B

Cape & Islands Adventure Lodging Information

You'll be delighted by the lovely boutique inns we have chosen for your adventure. You'll spend two nights at The Bradford Inn (pictured right) in Chatham and one night at the Hob Knob Hotel (pictured left) in Edgartown. Both properties offer quintessential New England charm, with the perfect balance of elegance and cozy comfort. And with ideal locations, you'll be just footsteps from dozens of shops, art galleries, eateries, and more.
